Defendants.

Case No. 1:19-MJ-515

PROTECTIVE ORDER

This matter is before the Court on the Consent Motion for Entry of a Stipulated Protective Order restricting the disclosure and dissemination of the documents, electronic records, and other information produced by the United States to the defendants as part of the government's discovery obligations in this case. These documents, electronic records, and other information ("Protected Materials"), shall be subject to the following Order:

1. The government shall disclose Protected Materials to the defendants as part of its discovery obligations, in accordance with the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, relevant case law, and any Discovery Order entered in the case. Where Protected Materials are produced electronically on disc, only the physical disc (and not the individual electronic files) must be labeled "PROTECTED MATERIALS."

2. The disclosure or provision of documents or materials by the government to the defendants shall not operate as a waiver of any privilege or protection in any other proceeding or against any third party that could or may be asserted by the holder of any such privilege or protection.

3. Access to Protected Materials shall be restricted to persons authorized by this Order, namely the defendants, their attorney of record in this case, and the employees of the attorneys of record who are performing work on behalf of the defendants, as well as any consultants or experts assisting the attorneys of record in the preparation of this case.

4. The following restrictions are placed on the defendants, the defendants' attorneys, and the above-designated individuals, unless and until further ordered by the Court. The defendants, the defendants' attorneys, and the above-designated individuals shall not:

- a. make copies of Protected Materials for, or allow copies of any kind to be made by, any other person;
- b. allow any other person to read Protected Materials; and
- c. use the Protected Materials or information contained therein for any purpose other than preparing to defend against the criminal charges in this matter.

5. The defendants' attorneys shall inform any person to whom disclosure may be made pursuant to this Order of the existence and terms of this Order.

6. Nothing in this Order shall restrict use by the defendants' attorneys of Protected Materials or information during the defendants' investigation of the allegations and preparation of their defenses or introduction as evidence at trial. Where appropriate, however, the defendants' attorneys must redact any personal identifying information in the Protected Materials, in accordance with Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 49.1, Local Criminal Rule 47, and the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia Guide to February 15, 2005 Local Rule Amendments Concerning Personal Identifiers.

7. Prior to the disclosure of any Protected Materials to a person not identified in Paragraph 3 of this Order, counsel for the defendants must first receive permission from the Court for such disclosure. Such permission may be requested ex parte.

8. Upon conclusion of this action, and to the extent consistent with the ethical responsibilities of defense counsel, defendants' attorneys shall return to government counsel, or destroy and certify to government counsel the destruction of, all Protected Materials within a reasonable period of time, not to exceed thirty days after the last appeal is final.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
